JUDGE HENRY LAMM

Tomorrow Judge Henry Lamm comes to Columbia as the Republican candidate for Governor. His coming as the leader of a state political party should make his welcome none the less sincere. Judge Lamm probably realizes that Boone County will not go Republican in November. It is likely that he scheduled his Boone County speech just to give his many friends a close range view of himself in the fighting clothes of political contest—for Judge Lamm is a fighter.

Hale and hearty at 70 he is stamping the state with the fire and enthusiasm of a man of thirty. He is an example for young men, for although old in years he is as young and fresh in spirit as the youngest University student.

Judge Lamm will probably not carry Boone County politically, but he can carry away with him the knowledge that political difference does not alter Boone County's hospitality to him.

M. U. JEWISH HAVE ANNIVERSARY

Student Congregation, One Year Old, Brings Big Men to Columbia.

The Jewish Student's Congregation, an organization of Jewish students in the University who conduct their own church services and bring many Jewish educators and Rabbis to Columbia, will begin their second year of activities Wednesday night when they will have in charge the services celebrating the beginning of the New Year, according to the Jewish calendar. This holiday is known as Rosh Hashanah. The services will be held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night and from 10 to 12 o'clock Thursday morning.

This year will be the year 5677 according to the Jewish calendar and will be celebrated in large Jewish circles by feasting and merriment. In order to keep these days in mind the Jewish students here in the University organized the Jewish student's Congregation which will hold services every other Sunday and on all Jewish holidays.

The Jewish churches in all the large cities of the state are co-operating with the Jewish students in their religious work here. The Congregation was organized here last year by Rabbi Louis Bernstein of St. Joseph, who came here personally to conduct the work. Later in the year, Rabbi Harrison of St. Louis, Thurman of St. Louis, Mayor of Kansas City, and Sale of St. Louis preached here.

This year it is expected that the same Rabbis will be here with additional Rabbis from other parts of the country. Rabbi Stephen A. Wise of New York will be invited to preach here during the coming school year. Jacob Billikopf, non-resident lecturer of the University and secretary of the Welfare Board in Kansas City is one of the chief members of the out-of-town committee and laid plans for this year's work for the congregation before he left with the Red Cross expedition to Poland.

The officers of the organization for the coming year are William Stone, President, Joseph Gershon, vice-president and treasurer, and Lucile Hartman, secretary.

Jewish students and others interested are invited to attend any services of the congregation.

STUDENT DAY TO BE OCTOBER 8

Every Church in Columbia Behind Movement to Hold Special Services

Every church in Columbia with the possible exception of the Wilkes Boulevard Methodist Church will hold special services October 8, which has been designated Student Day.

"We are very much interested in the movement to hold special students' services," says the Rev. A. B. Coffman, pastor of the Wilkes Boulevard Church, "but because of our location, it would be useless for us to try to hold special services for students. We are too far out for students to attend."

ALUMNI WANT TIGER NEWS

Football Season Chief Interest, According to Missourian Letters.

Each mail brings letters to the business office of the Missourian from Alumni and former students of the University who are anxious to get the news of Columbia and the Tigers. King L. Banks, who received his B. S. in agriculture in June writes that he is in the "hog" business at Smithdale, Ark. Banks says, "Although I got my degree last year and can no longer be connected with old Mizou except as an alumnus, my heart is with the school all the time."

Donald D. Wilson, a former student in the school of forestry in Ennville, Idaho, working in a lumber camp. He asks that the Missourian be sent to "the wilderness of Idaho." He says, "I'm still interested in old Missouri and the Tigers. I hope that we beat the Jayhawkers this year." Wilson will be in Columbia for the Christmas holiday.

DEBATING SOCIETIES MEET.

Prof. Shepard Speaks to Members of the M. S. U. Club.

Prof. W. J. Shepard discussed intercollegiate and intramural debating before the M. S. U. Debating Club at its first meeting Saturday night. Debates this year will be held with Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Wisconsin. Texas, Oklahoma and Missouri will form the triangle this year, each contesting with the other two. The single tax will be the subject for these debates.

Professor Shepard told of the great interest at Wisconsin in intramural debating. In discussing this phase he said the greatest value of debating to the University is "To develop a general ability on the part of a large number of students to speak intelligently on their feet before a reasonably large assembly."

The Athenaeum Literary Society, holder of two cups awarded for placing the largest number of men on the interstate debating squad, held its first meeting in Room 310, Academic Hall.

201 CHRISTIAN COLLEGE AVENUE

WEALTH IS HANDICAP TO STUDENTS, HE SAYS

Dr. R. L. Wilbur of Leland Stanford, Jr., U. Practically Bars "Idle Rich."

MUSTN'T OWN AUTOS

Circular Sent Out Prohibits Taxis and Flowers for the Coeds.

By United Press.

PALM ALTO, Cal., Sept. 25.—Wealth is a handicap to the college student and the poor boy has the advantage, according to Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur president of Leland Stanford University, in a statement today.

As a consequence of this belief Doctor Wilbur decreed that beginning this year autos may not be owned by students; that too frequent dances, the purchase of expensive flowers for coeds and similar luxuries will be banned.

Doctor Wilbur has sent a circular letter to students' parents saying students with too much money are not desired at the school, if they are inclined to spend their time in the pursuit of pleasure.

Urges Small Allowances.

The letter urges parents to refrain from too liberal allowances and warns them that as the number of entrants this year is limited, those students who fall to show they are doing honest work will not be permitted to remain.

Stanford does not particularly seek poor boys and discourage the entrance of the wealthy, Doctor Wilbur explains, but experience has shown that the poor boy has, on the whole, made a better record, both as a student and afterwards. His appeal, Doctor Wilbur says, is an endeavor to save the wealthy lad from his own particular dangers.

"It takes time to run an automobile and it often leads to life off the campus, to extravagance and much foolishness," says the circular, adding: "There is plenty to do in the way of variety right at the university, with its swimming pools, athletic fields, gymnasiums, beautiful walks and the like."

"There is no need to go to San Francisco more than once or twice a semester and this trip can be conveniently and cheaply made by train. There is no need to supply money for orchids, for dance parties or for taxi hire.

"The students who cannot be content to lead the clean, simple, industrious life expected on the Stanford campus should go elsewhere. If you do not feel our idea of student self-government is right and if you do not feel that it expresses the right attitude toward alcohol, hazing, self control, payment of debts and things of that sort, it would be better to keep your son or daughter at home, or send them elsewhere. It will save them the trouble that is almost sure to come sometime in a four-year course and will give the University more time to develop those who have the disposition to conform."

Choral Society to Meet Tonight.

The Columbia Choral Society will meet tonight in Room 324, Academic Hall. All last year's members are urged to be present.
